MISCELLANEOUS READING. HE SELECTION OF A WIFE. im Slick, in his late "sayings," gives some advice about the selection of a wife

Don't marry too poor a galler they are apt to think there is no eend to their husband's puss: nor too rich a gal, for they are apt to renind you of it onpleasant sometimes; nor too giddy a gal, for they neglect their families; nor too demure a one for they are most apt to give you the dodge, race off, and leave you; nor too weak-minded a one, for children take all their talents from their mothers," and with all due deference to the ladies, we would ask Mr. Slick if he means to insinuate that the population of the world is already large enough?

> DR. HATCH'S EXPOSURES OF SPIRITUALISM -Dr. B. T. Hatch, husband of Mrs. Cora L. V. Hatch, has issued the first of his letters exposing spiritualism. He is very discursive in the opening, and promises much in closing, but actually reveals no more than everybody knew before, that spiritualism is a humbug. and the inculcation of its doctrine has produced disastrous moral and social results .-That mediums, in giving up their personal identity, abandoned all decency. Dr. H. does not believe that spirits communicate with mortals. What passes current for spiritualism among its believers, he classifies as fifty per cent self delusion, twenty-five per cent pyschology, fifteen per cent intentional imposition; the remaining ten per cent unaccounted for. Dr. Hatch will next proceed to classify believers, define their theories, and show up their practical working.
